

Scarborough—Insurance.

West Union voted to continue dry Monday.

All the local banks will be closed Memorial Day.

D. O. Miller, the Greenfield banker, was in town Tuesday.

S. N. Patton was a business visitor at Sardinia Tuesday.

Miss Eva Richards visited relatives at Lebanon last week.

John R. Hogst, of Columbus, was a visitor here Saturday.

Carl Holmes came home from Stanton, Ky., Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. W. Spargur is the guest of relatives at Batavia.

Mrs. C. V. Critchfield entertained with a luncheon Tuesday.

John Sylvester, of Sabina, called on Hillsboro friends Monday.

For fine tailoring call on Phil Thiemes, West Main street.

FOUND—Large bunch of keys. Apply to Marshal James G. Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kay spent Sunday with relatives at Greenfield.

Miss May Cummings is visiting her brother, Samuel, at Peoria, Ill.

Harry Scully, of Cincinnati, was the guest of Joe Stabler Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Renner spent Sunday with friends in Chillicothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kent are the guests of their son, Ben, at Dayton.

Special attention given to cleaning and repairing. PHIL THIEMES.

Buy your Portland Cement of H. A. KENT & Co.

FOR SALE—Both timothy and clover hay. A. E. HILLIARD, Hillsboro, O.

Call on John Pfarr for cleaning and repairing. 151 West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Middleton Mullenix spent Sunday with Chillicothe friends.

Chris Brunner is repainting the Brunner Block on West Main street.

Misses Virginia and Annie Bartley spent Sunday with relatives at Leesburg.

Mrs. Dr. Rhoten, of Mowrystown, was the guest of Mrs. George Edwards Friday.

James Hewitt is now one of the advance agents of Ringling Brothers' Circus.

Earl Taylor, of New Bremen, spent Sunday the guest of Miss Jessie Brown.

J. Walter Carson, of Portsmouth, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. B. Burton.

Clarence Gregg, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Richards.

Mrs. Roy Chapman, of Pittsburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Boulware.

Hon. and Mrs. J. J. Puley are entertaining Mrs. George W. Gill, of Columbus.

Chas. Gorman is repainting the exterior of his building, the old Glascock-Cafe corner.

Rev. S. C. Pierce is attending the state convention of the O. C. M. S. at Uhrichsville.

LOST—Waterman fountain pen. Finder please notify this office and receive reward.

Hon. C. Q. Hildebrandt, of Wilmington, circled among Hillsboro friends Tuesday.

Miss Jean Bowles spent several days at Cincinnati last week, the guest of Mrs. Will Roden.

Miss Lena Williams, of New Petersburg, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ethel Overman.

Miss Daisy Moore, of Cincinnati, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Blanche Johnson.

An alto saxophone has been added to the Hillsboro Military Band. Guy Stout will play it.

George W. Henderson and Miss Elizabeth Doolley called on friends at New Vienna Sunday.

Rev. Father Cotter left Sunday evening for Chicago to attend the funeral of a relative.

Misses Maud Thompson and Mary and Ann King, of Norwood, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Waddell were among the Greenfield people who visited Hillsboro Tuesday.

Chas. F. Whisler and Geo. Edwards attended the Baptist Association meeting at Dayton Sunday.

Mayor Albert M. Mackerley and A. S. Borden, of Greenfield, were business visitors here Monday.

Miss Mary Evans is in Greenfield this week attending a house party given by Mrs. E. A. Squiers.

James Foley and his corps of expert plumbers were in Lynchburg several days last week—on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Dun, of Sabina, spent Sunday in Hillsboro, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Tiffin.

The Altruistic Association will meet on Friday at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Richards. Miss Mattie Mather will read an interesting paper on "The Companionship of Books."

Scarborough—Real Estate.

For fine tailoring call on Phil Thiemes, West Main street.

Mrs. Sarah Harger, of El Paso, Tex., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyd.

The B. & O. S. W. is reballasting its line between here and Blanchester and laying new steel rails.

Owen N. Burns, formerly of this place, now a prosperous Chicago business man, was in town Friday.

Capt. and Mrs. M. F. Carroll and Miss Margaret Carroll spent Sunday with friends at Fayetteville.

White Plymouth Rock eggs $1.00 per setting. MRS. J. S. OLDAKER, R. D. 4, Lynchburg, O.

Good razors guaranteed satisfactory. 98c. to $2.50. THE ECONOMY STORE.

Mrs. Andrew Wise, of Lynchburg, and Miss Hazel Troutwine, of Cincinnati, called on friends here Monday.

R. S. Evans went to Des Moines, Iowa, last week, to attend the Presbyterian General Assembly as a delegate.

The breaking down of an engine below Mowrystown delayed traffic over the N. & W. for several hours Monday.

FOUND—Valuable hat pin. Owner prove property and pay for this advertisement. Apply at the NEWS-HERALD office.

A new cement sidewalk is being constructed on the Walnut and West street sides of the First Baptist church.

Mrs. Carl Brown and little son, Fred, of Cincinnati, are the guests of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Lida Reutenik.

Rev. W. B. Dunham resumed his pastoral duties Sunday after a fortnight's visit with relatives at Martinsville, Ind.

Mrs. Serena Varley, who had been a guest of Hillsboro relatives for several days, returned to her home at Middletown Saturday.

Misses Amelia Newby and Madge Hughey spent the first part of last week with Miss Lorie Hughey at Washington C. H.

L. E. Diehl, editor and proprietor of the Mowrystown Independent, has leased the paper to Rev. C. C. Allton and Chas. Yochum.

Joshua B. Glenn, of this city, will be one of the Miami University graduates. The commencement exercises will be held June 14.

J. M. Hughey Camp of S. of V. will meet this (Thursday) evening to arrange for participation in the Memorial services May 30.

"Get the habit" and buy a box of Bliss Native Herb Tablets of F. R. Shepherd, 735 south High street. 200 days treatment $1.00.

Adjutant General Oliver H. Hughes came down from Columbus Saturday evening and spent Sunday and Monday with relatives here.

Chas. H. Morrow, engineer at the Hillsboro Waterworks, has accepted a similar position at Sabina and will take up his duties there June 1.

Have that troublesome tooth extracted painlessly with the use of Somnoforme. Holmes & Rogers the only dentists in southern Ohio who have it.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boulware have been entertaining their daughter, Mrs. W. O. Baumgardner, and her little daughter, Mary Eda, of Blanchester.

Rev. L. E. Durr, Mrs. G. B. Beecher and Mrs. E. B. Ayres attended the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church at Greenville last week.

The C. & C. Traction Co. will sell excursion tickets to Hillsboro from all points from Boston east, one fare round trip, on Stockade Day, Saturday, June 2.

If you want to keep in good health get a box of "Bliss Native Herb Tablets." Sold by F. R. Shepherd, 735 south High street. 200 days treatment $1.00.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. W. Spargur will make their home in Hillsboro hereafter. They will occupy, temporarily, the Fred Murdock property, on North High street.

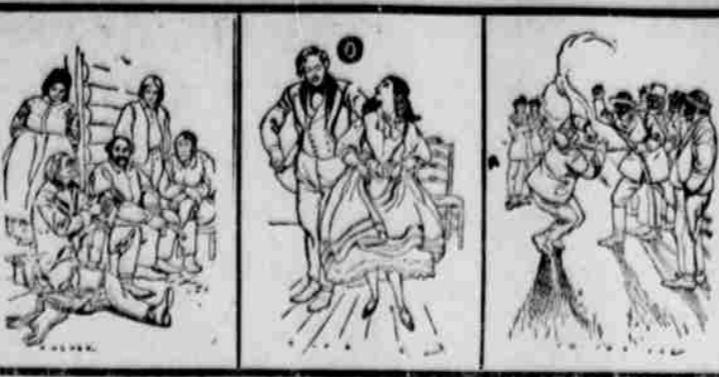

St. Patrick, the horse bought at the recent Washington C. H. sales for $3,500 by W. L. Roades, of New Jersey, was sold last week to New York parties for $7,000.

If you have a lower plate that is unsatisfactory, or can't wear, have Holmes & Rogers make you a Watts metal plate. They are guaranteed. Price reasonable.

John Iverson Young was sworn in as county game warden Tuesday. A number of citizens will co-operate with him in an effort to put an end to dynamiting and sealing fish.

There will be a special meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps at their hall on Thursday afternoon, May 24, to prepare for Memorial Day. All members are requested to be present.

Will Wedding, who is taking lessons in the Cincinnati College of Music, recently purchased a fine Shaffer piano of T. J. Sprinkle & Sons, with which to cultivate his already exceptionally fine bass voice.

Darrell of the Blessed Isles BY IRVING BACHELLER

Author of "Eben Holden," "Dri and I," "Silas Strong," etc.

ILLUSTRATED BY HEVER

Competent judges consider this the best of Bachelier's novels. For this reason and because we like it, finding it sweet and wholesome, we have secured the serial rights for publication in our columns.

Roderick Darrell is a most extraordinary character who takes a strong hold on the reader and Sidney Trove—well, you can't keep your mind off of him. The mystery surrounding both Darrell and Trove at once arouse the keenest curiosity, and you become deeply interested in Sidney Trove from the moment of his meeting Polly—after that "curious interview, the words of small account, the silences full of that power which has been the very light of the world."

"And whatever was to come, in that hour the great priest of love in the white robe of innocence had made them one."

"Now and ever after he was to think and tarry also in the road of life and look behind him for the golden towers of memory."

No; we can't tell you how it turned out. That would spoil the pleasure of reading the story which will begin

IN OUR NEXT ISSUE LOOK FOR IT

Special Low Prices

—ON—

Carpets, Matting, Linoleums,
Oil Cloths, Rugs (Common or Room Sizes), Art
Denims and Draperies.

More than 100 styles in CURTAINS and
PORTIERS selling at much less than present values.

Spargur & Co.

Lew McAdams has disposed of his interest in the restaurant of McAdams & Gorman to Eugene Gorman, and will look for a location elsewhere.

Attention of stockmen is called to the advertisement elsewhere in this issue, of the third great sale of breeding cattle, which will take place at Dr. H. M. Brown's farm Thursday, June 6.

At the Presbyterian Church next Sunday the pastor will preach at 10:30 a. m. Subject—"Who says that I am?" Evening sermon at 7:30. Subject—"Paul and Felix." All are invited.

Mrs. Will McCoy, of Wilmington, visited the family of Rev. J. W. Shade, Tuesday, prior to her departure for Grant's Pass, Ore., where she will join her husband and reside in the future.

The encampment of the Ohio Division Sons of Veterans will be held at Dayton June 12-14. The encampment of the Commandery-in-Chief will be held at Peoria, Ill., the week of August 20.

At the election of officers Friday evening C. D. elected A. W. Underwood, captain and Milt. Wedding, first lieutenant. An election to fill the vacant second lieutenant will soon be held.

Richard Bell, the victim of an accident in Cincinnati last week is at home. He walks with a cane and is bruised and sore, but is thankful that his hurts are no worse.—Wilmington Republican.

Ellis Pence is convalescent after undergoing a dangerous surgical operation at Columbus. Mr. Pence had sustained a rupture while assisting in the erection of a monument in Brown county.

The W. R. C. ladies will serve ice-cream, strawberries and cake in the Court House yard Friday evening. Come and enjoy yourself and help a good cause along. All these good things for 15 cents.

The Hillsboro Colored Band went to Ripley Saturday night and furnished music there Sunday for a big celebration given by the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows. The band, of which Percy Golts is the leader, acquitted itself with much credit.

Mrs. Will J. Welmer and little daughter, Frances, of Washington C. H., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Dean.

Mrs. F. R. Ambrose, Mrs. Joel Hardin, Mrs. J. B. Rowe and Misses Mattie Mather, May Ayres, Mary Cowman and Mary Barrere attended the District Convention of the W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church at Sabina last Thursday.

Robert Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bell, of Blanchester, who has been employed in Cincinnati the past year, was in January last, quietly married to Miss Carrie Linnville. The groom was formerly employed in a Hillsboro printing establishment.

Joe Elton has been selected as delegate from Hillsboro Lodge B. P. O. E. No. 361 to the forty-second Grand Lodge session and twentieth annual reunion of the order at Denver, July 16 to 20. A number of other members of the local herd will also attend.

Thos. B. McCoy died at his home in Washington C. H., Sunday, May 13, at 2 p. m., after a long illness, aged 48 years, 7 months and 3 days. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Mary Dunn, of this place. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery here May 15.

May 19, "Tree Day" at Western College, Oxford, was celebrated by an al fresco performance of "Twelfth Night," students impersonating the various characters. Miss Nina Glenn, of this place, played the part of Viola.

H. M. Norton, of Ludlow, Ky., was the guest of James M. Richards at Rocky Fork Stock Farm Friday and Saturday. Mr. Norton is the owner of the fine stallion, Harvest Prince, 2:15, making the season at Mr. Richard's barn.

Harry Asher, formerly of this place, now with the Columbus Machine company, was in town Friday for the purpose of repairing the NEWS-HERALD's engine, and took advantage of the opportunity to renew many old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Keys have the sympathy of every one in the sudden loss of their bright and lovely little daughter, Margaret Rosali, whose death was chronicled in last week's NEWS-HERALD. Too fair and sweet a flower for earth, she blooms in heaven.

Sheriff McMullen and a posse of deputies went through the Hotel Parker with a search and seizure warrant the afternoon of last Thursday. The result was a plenty of search and a total lack of seizure, as no contraband goods were discovered.

Buy Your SPRING SUIT NOW

I have just bought from one of the largest New York manufacturers of Clothing a line of Spring Suits at great reduction in price, and want you to call and see them.

I CAN SAVE YOU BIG MONEY ON PRICES.

Sam R. Free
THE EXCLUSIVE CLOTHIER
FREE'S CORNER, HILLSBORO, O.

WATCH THE DATE SPECIAL SALE OF SHOES —ON— SATURDAY, MAY 26.

We will place on sale all broken lines of our entire stock, and we have some good bargains in store for buyers who come on that day. The goods will be strictly as we represent them below. Here is our BILL OF FARE FOR SATURDAY, MAY 26.

Ladies' Shoes, Pat. Kid, lace, coin toe, French or Cuban heels, light or heavy soles, worth $3.50 and $3.00, at $2.48.

Ladies' Oxfords, Pat. Kid or Vici, coin toe, military or French heels, in broken sizes, worth $3.00 and $2.50, at $1.98.

Ladies' Shoes, Vici Kid, lace or button, coin toe high or low heel, worth $2.50 and $2.00, at $1.48.

Ladies' Shoes, Vici Kid, lace or button, in broken lots, worth $2.00 and $1.50, at 98c.

Misses' Shoes, Vici Kid, pat. tip, coin toe, heavy or light sole, worth $1.50 and $1.25, at 98c.

Men's High-Grade Oxfords, black or tan, good toes, worth $7.00 and $3.50, at $2.98.

Men's Fine shoes, black or tan, coin toe, good styles, worth $3.50, at $2.48.

Men's Fine Shoes, pat. kid or vici kid, black, coin toe, good styles, worth $3.00, at $1.98.

Men's Black Shoes, coin or plain toe, kid stock, worth $2.00, at $1.48.

There are many other bargains which we might mention, but which we will leave for you to see. All these Shoes will be placed on tables where they can be examined by persons wishing to do so. Remember the date, for it means MONEY SAVED FOR YOU.

W. E. SMITH & CO.,

The Exclusive Shoe Dealers. N. High St., Opp. Court House.

The hot-water heating system which was constructed at Washington C. H., has been such a dismal failure that the managers have asked the State Board of Tax Revision to eliminate it from the tax duplicate.

Mrs. E. L. McClain and children, Mrs. Chas. Mains and children and Mrs. W. G. Moier, of Greenfield, came over Tuesday in Mr. McClain's fifty-horsepower automobile and called on Judge and Mrs. J. Frank Wilson.

Margaret Edwards, 'he little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, a pupil of the Webster school, was painfully but not seriously injured one day last week by a collision with another pupil.